

Privacy statement PMF Industry group

PMF Industry Group respects your personal data and utilises personal data provided to us with care. This statement is intended for subcontractors who are employed by another party and perform work for us in the capacity of a subcontractor.

Processing Principles

On behalf of our subcontractors (the party from whom we have hired you), you will perform work on our behalf. In connection with this work it is necessary to utilise personal data. We are happy to explain to you why we collect your data and how we utilise your data.

If your employer does not pay taxes or VAT, the Tax authority can contact us as a liable party for these taxes. To lower the risk, personal data is maintained through our administration. The records include the identity of the workers we have deployed, we must also be able to evidence in the event that we have foreign workers that they are permitted to work in the Netherlands.

Sometimes the processing of your personal data is mandatory. In other cases, we have a minor interest in this data. By knowing who comes to work for us, we can manage liability risk with reference to government agencies such as the Tax authorities with reference to the imposition of fines under the Foreign Nationals Employment Act. For these reasons you are therefore obliged to provide your data. If you do not wish to provide any personal data, then you are not allowed to work for us and we may not allow you to perform work.

Sharing your data

PMF Industry Group only shares your personal data with third parties to the extent necessary for the proper performance of the work. In addition, PMF Industry Group will provide personal data to a third party, such as a regulator or another public authority, in so far as there is a legal requirement to do so.

Retention period

PMF Industry Group does not store personal data longer than necessary for the activities of the data processing and is required in accordance with the law and regulations.

Your rights

A request can be made for assessment, correction, limitation, objection, data transferability and deletion of your personal data or withdrawal of previously given permission via the following contact details. You will receive further information from us within 4 weeks of receiving your request. There may be circumstances in which PMF Industry Group is not able to fully implement your request, where for example there is a legal requirement.
